

NOVEMBER 2008 UPDATE

Greetings kind friends and supporters,

Thank You for Casting Your Vote for Redeemer Radio! Fall Sharathon 2008.

Thanks to you, our listeners and supporters, our fall Sharathon raised over $170,000! Remarkably, in light of the economy, the total was an increase over last year's $150,000. Redeemer Radio is blessed by your generosity. With your support, we will be able to stay on the air and grow our mission to evangelize and educate and to serve our Catholic community. Thank you to volunteer Sharathon Director Ken Nelson, Chairman Nick Gray and to all of our staff and volunteers. But most importantly, thanks to each of YOU!

It Was a Great Priestly Ordination on Redeemer Radio! For those of you who were not able to attend, perhaps you were able to listen to the ordination to the priesthood of Fathers Andrew Curry and Kevin Bauman at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Saturday, October 25 at 11 a.m. We at Redeemer Radio were honored to broadcast the ordinations live and streamed on the internet at redeemerradio.com. The broadcast was hosted by Sean McBride and Father Daryl Rybicki, pastor of St. John the Baptist Ft. Wayne. After the ordination, we broadcasted recorded interviews with the new priests and live interviews from the post-ordination reception at the Grand Wayne Center. Thank you to Sean and Father Daryl!

Sponsor Spotlight – Doctors Jennifer and Andrew Landrigan are pediatric specialty physicians with offices located in Southwest Fort Wayne, at 7910 West Jefferson Boulevard, Suite 201. They can be reached at 436-3789. Drs. Jennifer and Andrew Landrigan have sponsored the programming on Redeemer Radio from the very beginning. Thank you Doctors Landrigan! Our on-air sponsors help Redeemer Radio spread the truth and beauty of our Catholic faith and to serve our Catholic community. Please support them. And to become an on-air sponsor, call Patty at the studio (436-1450).

No Warmer in Alabama! Last month, board member Gary Denning and I participated in the annual Catholic radio conference hosted by EWTN in Birmingham, Alabama. Though it was nice and warm there, it was actually just as warm back here in Indiana. At the conference, there were attendees from all over the country – existing stations, soon-to-be stations and groups hoping to start a station. There was a special emphasis on how to build and launch new stations – something that will hopefully be a big help to us as we continue to plan for future expansion in and around our diocese. At the conference, were notable on-air personalities, including Jerry Usher (Catholic Answers Live), Al Kresta and Nick Thom (Kresta in the Afternoon), Teresa Tomeo (Catholic Connection), Johnette Benkovic (Women of Grace) and John Martignoni (Open Line Live). We learned a lot about future programming, legal and technical stuff, and lot's more. And we had mass each morning right at the conference center!

Listeners Love Redeemer Radio! A few listener comments received in the last month ...

- "Thank you for your increased signal strength. I live in the Ashley/Angola area and we get it now. I facilitate Adult Ed & help with the RCIA program and I often encourage the students to listen to Catholic Radio. Cable here doesn't have EWTN, so the Radio programs are wonderful. Thanks again for your ministry!" Elisabeth
- "You guys do a great job!"
- "I have been listening to Redeemer Radio online because of the great programming and because it's my little taste of home!" Seminarian from Diocese of Ft. Wayne-South Bend.

- "How great it is to have a radio station like this in Fort Wayne. The range of topics keeps things interesting and I always learn something new. All of the programming is great. I especially like listening to Fr. Corapi. Keep spreading the Good News. God bless all of you and the work you do." Elizabeth.
- "Thank you for putting on Catholic high school football. I have been listening for 3 years. Just this past week I heard my nephew kick a field goal and make plenty of tackles. I did not know the CYO games are on too!! My brothers are coaches of Catholic grade schools - St John's and St Jude's. Also, nephews on the teams as well. So THANKS AGAIN to all who make this happen for us OUT of town listeners. Sean McBride, Bridger Fetters, Joe Wharton, Brad Bodette and Greg Diss THANKS to you I still can hear the game and imagine that I'm there with my whole family, friends and alumni school. You Guys ROCK!!!!" Nancy & Gilbert from Billerica, Massachusetts

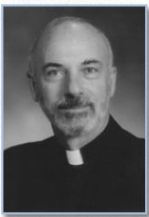

Our Redeemer Radio Family.

Our growing Redeemer Radio family work together every day to bring the truth and beauty of our Catholic faith to our community. New volunteers are always welcome! Just call Mindy at the studio (436-1450). In the photo at right is Ken Nelson, volunteer Sharathon Director. On the left, Nick Gray (volunteer board member and Sharathon Chairman) and family, together with Fr. Pius.

A Cup for Kim.

Kim and John Richards are owners of Higher Grounds and are supporters of Redeemer Radio. Kim Richards is battling cancer. They own several stores in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis. They employ over one hundred young people that attend our high schools and colleges. As a business, they are leaders in their efforts to support our community. They have generously supported our churches, schools, troops in Iraq and the list goes on. Despite their investment in the Fort Wayne community, they are losing significant market share to Starbucks. They have remained in business yet they have had to stop focusing on the competition in order to focus on Kim's "fight for her life." The Richards' family has had to make serious concessions in order to not be dependent on their business. They have sold their lake cottage, they are selling their home and they have accepted tuition assistance in order to keep their daughter in a catholic school, where she is surrounded by a strong faith community. Higher Grounds makes an excellent cup of coffee. They are a symbol of the entrepreneurial spirit that makes our country great. Let's let our conscience be our guide and support a business that has supported us! By being good patrons, we can make the battle a little easier for Kim and the Richards' family. Let's buy "A Cup for Kim" and support Higher Grounds, you can make a difference in this family's life! If you would like more information on Kim personally, she is journaling on their website: www.highergroundsonline.com/

Redeemer Radio Promotes 40 Days for Life.

40 Days for Life is an ecumenical community campaign that aims to draw attention to the evils of abortion in our city through a 3 point program: Prayer and fasting; Daily Prayer Vigil near Inwood Drive clinic; and Community outreach (public awareness). For 40 days September 24 – November 2, the people of Ft. Wayne are uniting in prayer and fasting with 177 other cities across America to plead for God's help in ending abortion. Our own Patty Becker spoke at the kick-off and we've been running promotional on-air spots recorded by our priests and listeners encouraging involvement. We also interviewed Rob Gregory (media consultant with the local 40 days) on the air, as well as featuring the campaign during one of our Sharathon segments. For more information about this worthy campaign, visit www.40-08.org or email Adam@40-08.org.

Blessed Thanksgiving!

We are thankful for you!

A blessed Thanksgiving wish to all of our friends and supporters.

Special Thanks.

We wish to specially recognize our volunteers for outstanding contributions to the Redeemer Radio apostolate.

- Russ Suever is one of our main operations volunteers. For many months, he volunteered full time as our operations lead until we were able to hire Carl Spade. He trained Carl and is now working on the technical approach for operating the additional stations we hope to launch in the next few years. Thanks so much Russ!
- Debbie Schoedel who is a website developer and for some time now has been faithfully keeping our website up to date. Bless you Debbie!
- Greg Diss is the volunteer statistician for our football broadcast team. He was the creator and implementer of Redeemer Radio's "Great Radio Giveaway" at the Battle of the Bishops football game. Greg is also the host of KnightLife heard monthly at 9am on Saturday on Redeemer Radio. Greg is also the State Chair for Pro Life for the Knights of Columbus.
